

The Chicago Daily Tribune.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1874—TWELVE PAGES.

VOLUME 28.

NUMBER 90.

CHAMPAGNE WINES.

THE LEADING BRAND OF THE TIMES.

VINS DE CHAMPAGNE

George Goulet & Co.

REIMS

J. RIFFLARD'S SONS, Sole Agents,
NO. 42 VESEY-ST., NEW YORK.

GIFT CONCERT.

SILVERWARE.

Louisville Concert.

FIFTH AND LAST

CONCERT!

FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY,
WILL TAKE PLACE

POSITIVELY
MONDAY,

Nov. 30, 1874.

THOMAS BRAMLETTE, Manager,
For full information apply to J.
WATTS & CO., Room 47, Metropolitan Block, corner Randolph and LaSalle-sts., Chicago.

FLOUR.

THE STAR & CRESCENT MILLS.

Choice Flour at Retail.

CRESCENT (Best Minnesota Wheat), $6.00
Wanted to make 400 pounds of bread, and of course 400 pounds of flour. Please send

Flour at the price.

FLYERS EXTRA (White Winter Wheat), $7.50
Send to any Winter White Flour in this market.

FLYER (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,
or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS WINTER AND SPRING GRAHAM
FLYERS (Best Minnesota Wheat), Fine White and Yellow Corn Meal, CANTON BRIGGS & HEERMAN

FLYERS (Best Minnesota Wheat), $6.00
Wanted to make 400 pounds of bread, and of course 400 pounds of flour. Please send

Flour at the price.

FLYERS (Best Minnesota Wheat), $6.00
Wanted to make 400 pounds of bread, and of course 400 pounds of flour. Please send

Flour at the price.

FLYERS (Best Minnesota Wheat), $6.00
Wanted to make 400 pounds of bread, and of course 400 pounds of flour. Please send

Flour at the price.

FLYERS (Best Minnesota Wheat), $6.00
Wanted to make 400 pounds of bread, and of course 400 pounds of flour. Please send

Flour at the price.

FLYERS (Best Minnesota Wheat), $6.00
Wanted to make 400 pounds of bread, and of course 400 pounds of flour. Please send

Flour at the price.

FLYERS (Best Minnesota Wheat), $6.00
Wanted to make 400 pounds of bread, and of course 400 pounds of flour. Please send

Flour at the price.

FLYERS (Best Minnesota Wheat), $6.00
Wanted to make 400 pounds of bread, and of course 400 pounds of flour. Please send

Flour at the price.

FLYERS (Best Minnesota Wheat), $6.00
Wanted to make 400 pounds of bread, and of course 400 pounds of flour. Please send

Flour at the price.

FLYERS (Best Minnesota Wheat), $6.00
Wanted to make 400 pounds of bread, and of course 400 pounds of flour. Please send

Flour at the price.

FLYERS (Best Minnesota Wheat), $6.00
Wanted to make 400 pounds of bread, and of course 400 pounds of flour. Please send

Flour at the price.

FLYERS (Best Minnesota Wheat), $6.00
Wanted to make 400 pounds of bread, and of course 400 pounds of flour. Please send

Flour at the price.

FIRE INSURANCE.

NIAGARA

Fire Insurance Co.

OF NEW YORK.

Cash Assets, $1,400,000.00.

Invested in U. S. Bonds, over $700,000.00.

Losses Paid, over $4,000,000.00.

100 DOZ. FULL REGULAR SHIRTS AND DRAWERS,

At $1.75 and $2.00, to close,

(actual value $3.00),

Together with every variety of

MEN'S DRIVING GLOVES,

Lined and Unlined, in Dog, Calf,

Buck, Cloth, 1 and 2-Button, and Gauntlet—all of superior quality, and at Lowest Market Prices.

23 YEARS' PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE

THE "NIAGARA" INSURANCE COMPANY

is not liable for any Policy or Renewal issued

after 1st January, 1874,

by the "UNDERWRITERS' AGENCY," so called,

ED., THE CONTRACT OF

THE UNDERWRITERS'

AGENCY OF NEW YORK HAVING EX-

PIRED BY LIMITA-

TION 31st DECEMBER,

1873.

The Gorham Company,

SILVERSMITHS ESTABLISHED 1811

NO. 1 BOND-ST., N. Y.

Rich Bridal Gifts—Testimonial Pieces—Family

Silver—Forks and Spoons—Services for Tea,

Dinner, Lunch, &c., &c., of Sterling Purity only.

These desirous of obtaining a ticket of Solid Silver, have the Gorham Sterling Stamp (Block, Anchor, and the like) on a positive guarantee of purity, and the Gorham Seal (Jewel, Jewel, and the like) on a certificate of quality as if obtained from the Gorham Company direct.

For Casting—Please to take a sample of Casting Oil, but more efficacious in each and bowls.

COLES' LUXURENE.

MORSE'S LUXURENE

FOR THE HAIR.

A new and perfect Deodorant

Compound, having NO EQUAL IN ELLI-

MINING THE HAIR SOFT AND GLOSSY; PRE-

VENTS AND REMOVES DANDRUFF. NA-

EST AND BEST NUTRITIVE HAIR

TONS at 8c. Price, 50 cents. Whole-

SALE, STEVENSON & REED. Sold and Ninety Dollars.

EXCISE SALES.

ON, POMEROY & CO.

NUCLEAR WEEKLY SALE OF

NITURE,

THING, NO. 22, at 8c o'clock.

The stock is now in the hands of the Proprietors.

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

or shipped to any address in the country
at a nominal charge. Quality

FLYERS (Very Choice), $7.50
Delivered in any part of the city free of charge,

TEMPERANCE.

Adjournment of the Women's National Temperance Convention.

A Grand and Noble Plan of Work Laid Out.

Auxiliary Societies to Be Formed in Cities, Towns, and Villages.

An Anti-Treat Pledge for Moderate Drinkers.

More Attention to Be Paid to the Products of the Kitchen.

And a Higher Esthetic Standard for the Parlor.

Full Text of the Constitution Adopted.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

CLEVELAND, NO. 20.—The Women's National Temperance Convention has just concluded its session. The talk of the past two days will fill several large volumes, but the record of actual work done can be told in a column. First, and mainly, there is which is now sent out as a chart and guide to the temperance women of the country. It is as follows:

THE PLAN OF WORK.

ORGANIZATION.

Since organization is the sun-glass which brings to a focus scattered influence and effort, we urge the formation of a Woman's Temperance Union in every State, city, town, and village. We will furnish a constitution for auxiliaries, with all needed instructions to any body applying to our Corresponding Secretary.

THE EVOLUTION OF TEMPERANCE IDEAS.

The evolution of temperance ideas is in this order: The people are informed, convinced, convicted, pledged. With these facts in view, we urge, first, frequent temperance mass-meetings; second, the careful circulation of temperance literature to the people's homes and in saloons; third, teaching the children of Sabbath-schools and public-schools the ethics, chemistry, physiology, and hygiene of total abstinence; fourth, offering prizes in these schools for essays on different aspects of the subject; fifth, placing a copy of the engraving known as the "Railroad to Ruin," and similar pictures, on the walls of every school-room; sixth, organizing temperance glee clubs of young people to sing temperance doctrine into the people's hearts; seventh, seeking permission to have a column in the interests of temperance in every newspaper in the land, and in all possible ways; endeavoring to secure from parents everywhere frequent temperance sermons and special services in connection with the weekly church-prayer-meeting and the Sabbath-school, at stated intervals, if they be only quarterly; ninth, preserving facts connected with the general subject and with our work in temperance scrap-books, to be placed in the hands of a special officer appointed for this purpose.

JUVENILE TEMPERANCE SOCIETIES.

Under this section they urge at some length the establishment of temperance societies for the young.

THE PLANS.

If nobody can drink then nobody could sell. We urge the circulation of the total abstinence pledge as fast and as far as facilities permit; life signatures being sought, but names being taken for any length of time, however brief; second, we have a special pledge for women, inviting the instruction and pledging of their children, their husbands, their households; banishing alcohol in all its forms from the sideboard and the kitchen, and enjoining quiet, persistent work for temperance in their own social circles; third, we urge the formation of temperance societies in every church and Sabbath-school, where it shall be kept permanently open in a convenient place, indicated by a motto placed above it; also a small pledge-book on our parlor table, and carry one in her pocket.

SACRAMENTAL WINE.

We strongly recommend our Union's every-where to appoint a committee of ladies in each church who shall seek to enlist the pastor and church officials in offering only unfermented wine at the communion-table.

ANOTHER RESOLUTION.

Among the most important resolutions the following were adopted:

THE CO-OPERATION.

The following was also adopted:

THE PRESS AND PUBLISHING.

That in this conflict of moral ideas we look to the press and publishing houses for early allies, and that we will endeavor by our influence to make members who though not yet ready to sign the pledge, are willing to refrain from putting the bottle to their lips, by pledging their honor that they will neither be treated nor treated.

TEMPERANCE COFFEE-HOUSE.

We would invite men to forsake saloons, we must invite them to a better place where they can sit down and have a cup of coffee. We would open small, neat coffee-rooms, with reading-rooms attached, which the ladies might supply with books and papers from their own homes, and by solicited funds, whenever practicable, and be fully informed, with which might be provided for those without compensation for their labor for their food and lodging, a manufacturing shop comprising various trades.

HOMES FOR INDESTITUTE WOMEN.

These should be established in the cities, our Union soliciting aid from the State and Municipal Governments, and from the general public.

RECENTLY PROPOSED.

recently proposed in New England will be powerful auxiliaries in our work, and we urge the Women's Union to help establish them in every community.

BUREAU OF INFORMATION.

Already, by means of correspondence, our chain of auxiliaries has been a medium of communication between persons in their homes, giving a helping hand to the latter amid their temptations. We suggest careful attention to this important subject in our beneficent work.

SOME MISSIONARY WORK.

Much has been said about our negligence in rendering our houses attractive and our cuisine appetizing, and not always with reason. We therefore recommend that in our Union's essays on the science and art of cooking and making home outwardly wholesome and attractive, we shall give to that subject a great circulation, so that we may secure a more scientific attention to the produce of the kitchen and a higher aesthetic standard for the parlor.

THE SINS OF WAR.

Our cause cannot forego the sins of all war, but we must do our best to have money. Our financial plan asks each member to contribute a week toward the temperance cause, and we urge this feature as one of great importance. Let us say that all needed information under any or all of the preceding heads will be gladly furnished on application with stamp to our corresponding Secretary.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this hour as our trying time with God.

EXERCISE THIS WITH GOD.

Our work game forth to us from God. The miracle of the crusade was wrought by prayer. Let us women of America, who are the heads of families, even in our bright home to prayerful thoughts about this greatest of reforms wherever we are. Let us lift up our hearts, whether alone or in company, in the closest or in the widest, and ask God to show them what would help. Let us form the habit of keeping sacredly at heart some moments of this

COMING POLITICAL ISSUES.

Message of the
A Comprehensive Republican Policy
for the Future.

Reform in Transportation--Rehabilitation of American Shipping.

Building-Up of Our Mining Industries--
Return to Specie-Payments.

Special Correspondence of The Chicago Tribune.

The Chicago Tribune, Nov. 14, 1874.

The editorial, "Our Political Outlook," has been the topic of many conversations among the prominent men of all parties who have done so much to bring us to the present position. The middle of the year, the leaves of our calendar begin to rustle sadly under our feet and the frost to nip our noses gently. About these times look out for political gatherings in all the hotels and club-houses, the corridors of the Departments, and every "auditorium" of the bar-room. The closets of our statesmen and the augs of our pot-house politicians are alike busy now; alike thinking over and talking over the situation as it is and the probable coming state of affairs.

Under such circumstances, the thoughtful, truthful, comprehensive article of "Our Tribune" to which I have referred comes as a breath of sunshine in a stormy day. That there are facts stated the true causes of the late Republican defeat, and that there is a strong, a most sincere, and a most decided opposition to our country's own questions. The only adverse criticism I have heard upon the article is in reference to its concluding paragraph, about the old Democratic party, "Poor State," and all that.

The salvation of the Republican party depends upon two things: 1. Democratic simplicity, which for fifteen years has been as certain as the sun; and 2. Republican wisdom and statesmanship, in respect of which we may well have some considerable but not overwhelming confidence. It will surely be regarded as the duty of honest Republicans and honest Republicans to do all in their power to correct the mistakes of the past, and to provide a comprehensive policy for the future, by which the country shall be restored to prosperity and placed on the plane of substantial progress.

COMING POLITICAL ISSUES.

The present is not an heroic era in politics. It is a time when thousands of men are out of employment; when business is not great; when specie-pays are in disrepute; when millions of capital are lying idle. Great industries have been forced by superfluous legislation into artificial channels, are now prone to ruins with absolutely no hope of permanent rehabilitation. Others are prostrated in disaster which could only be temporary. Still others of great importance in the development of our interests, are at a standstill against hard facts of existence and recognition.

It must be clear to every respecting person that no single cause could have produced the present situation of affairs. Even if it is clear that all our present difficulties are of a temporary nature, there must be a comprehensive policy adopted; a policy which shall comprehend the abolition of existing ills not only, but which shall also embrace positive measures of progressive reform. Among these measures is

REFORM IN TRANSPORTATION.

This question is one of very great importance, and is supported by grave and solid practical arguments. It was recalled to my mind in 1873 Senator Windom's Special Committee travelled the country from end to the other for the purpose of obtaining facts and the opinions of experts in respect to the existing means of transportation, and how they may be improved. The result of all this expense and labor was a voluminous report and a long speech, "Parliamentary modes," as it is called.

The report tells to us of its own weight. Its recommendations were on a scale of magnificence as respects internal improvements which would have equalled the treasures of Christendom in the last century. The whole report is in plain possibilities. Ancient Ptolemy was not half so topographical. It is well for the people that the whole business was not implemented. But it is plain that abuses and extravagances in transportation exist, having a constant costly effect upon production. It is equally plain that reform herein is not a easy task. That something can be done by "law" is certain; but that the remedy for the ill is outside of law, is perhaps the better opinion. It lies in practical improvements in the methods of transportation, both by land and rail. What is the sense of carrying 10,000 pounds of wheat in a car as a lumber-yard, and only one-third full? There was less cost in the transport of coal, than in the transport of grain, so that it would not be long until Government and banks would have plenty wherewithal to reduce every dollar of paper that would be paid for its payment.

By some such comprehensive plan of practical statesmanship as I have here briefly and imperfectly outlined, with just reform in party management just hinted at, can the Republicans be of service.

RECOMMENDING THE CONFIDENCE OF THE PEOPLE.

They must show, not that they deserved that confidence in the past, but that they deserve it now. Each would be a great good in its way, and all are needed. In this place the country up to the road to great and glorious success, and in this time also the influence over France and Germany.

WITHIN THE NEXT YEAR.

Should he not have a great command, Faure, the great and most deservedly popular French baritone, took umbrage at the engagement of Patti, and at the fact that, besides paying her so well, he was to be paid a large sum to increase the price of admission. This was a blow to the vanity of Monsieur Faure, and was, besides, in violation of the contract which bound him to the Grand Opera, and so he sent in his notice of termination. The result was that there were no performances of the new operas which attacked the great artist; and the whole affair became venomous, so that it seemed unlikely it could ever be arranged, and that he would lose his place.

But, at the last moment, the managers of the Institute saw that the necessity of having him in the place was greater than the desire to offend him, and so he was engaged again.

The efforts of Monsieur Bagier, the manager of the Institute, are so far, not crowned with success, as yet, in his efforts to get a good Italian troupe together. St. Petersburg and the United States take away all the stars.

THE THEATRES.

At the Francois Opera House it is to be produced, but not until after "Des-Monde" of Alain, and then Dumas will be recalled to the stage in 1875. Senator Windom's Special Committee travelled the country from end to the other for the purpose of obtaining facts and the opinions of experts in respect to the existing means of transportation, and how they may be improved. The result of all this expense and labor was a voluminous report and a long speech, "Parliamentary modes," as it is called.

The report tells to us of its own weight.

Its recommendations were on a scale of magnificence as respects internal improvements which would have equalled the treasures of Christendom in the last century. The whole report is in plain possibilities. Ancient Ptolemy was not half so topographical. It is well for the people that the whole business was not implemented. But it is plain that abuses and extravagances in transportation exist, having a constant costly effect upon production. It is equally plain that reform herein is not a easy task. That something can be done by "law" is certain;

but that the remedy for the ill is outside of law, is perhaps the better opinion. It lies in practical improvements in the methods of transportation, both by land and rail. What is the sense of carrying 10,000 pounds of wheat in a car as a lumber-yard, and only one-third full? There was less cost in the transport of coal, than in the transport of grain, so that it would not be long until Government and banks would have plenty wherewithal to reduce every dollar of paper that would be paid for its payment.

By some such comprehensive plan of practical statesmanship as I have here briefly and imperfectly outlined, with just reform in party management just hinted at, can the Republicans be of service.

RECOMMENDING THE CONFIDENCE OF THE PEOPLE.

They must show, not that they deserved that confidence in the past, but that they deserve it now. Each would be a great good in its way, and all are needed. In this place the country up to the road to great and glorious success, and in this time also the influence over France and Germany.

WITHIN THE NEXT YEAR.

Should he not have a great command, Faure,

the great and most deservedly popular French baritone, took umbrage at the engagement of Patti, and at the fact that, besides paying her so well, he was to be paid a large sum to increase the price of admission. This was a blow to the vanity of Monsieur Faure, and was, besides, in violation of the contract which bound him to the Grand Opera, and so he sent in his notice of termination. The result was that there were no performances of the new operas which attacked the great artist; and the whole affair became venomous, so that it seemed unlikely it could ever be arranged, and that he would lose his place.

But, at the last moment, the managers of the Institute saw that the necessity of having him in the place was greater than the desire to offend him, and so he was engaged again.

The efforts of Monsieur Bagier, the manager of the Institute, are so far, not crowned with success, as yet, in his efforts to get a good Italian troupe together. St. Petersburg and the United States take away all the stars.

THE THEATRES.

At the Francois Opera House it is to be produced, but not until after "Des-Monde" of Alain, and then Dumas will be recalled to the stage in 1875. Senator Windom's Special Committee travelled the country from end to the other for the purpose of obtaining facts and the opinions of experts in respect to the existing means of transportation, and how they may be improved. The result of all this expense and labor was a voluminous report and a long speech, "Parliamentary modes," as it is called.

The report tells to us of its own weight.

Its recommendations were on a scale of magnificence as respects internal improvements which would have equalled the treasures of Christendom in the last century. The whole report is in plain possibilities. Ancient Ptolemy was not half so topographical. It is well for the people that the whole business was not implemented. But it is plain that abuses and extravagances in transportation exist, having a constant costly effect upon production. It is equally plain that reform herein is not a easy task. That something can be done by "law" is certain;

but that the remedy for the ill is outside of law, is perhaps the better opinion. It lies in practical improvements in the methods of transportation, both by land and rail. What is the sense of carrying 10,000 pounds of wheat in a car as a lumber-yard, and only one-third full? There was less cost in the transport of coal, than in the transport of grain, so that it would not be long until Government and banks would have plenty wherewithal to reduce every dollar of paper that would be paid for its payment.

By some such comprehensive plan of practical statesmanship as I have here briefly and imperfectly outlined, with just reform in party management just hinted at, can the Republicans be of service.

RECOMMENDING THE CONFIDENCE OF THE PEOPLE.

They must show, not that they deserved that confidence in the past, but that they deserve it now. Each would be a great good in its way, and all are needed. In this place the country up to the road to great and glorious success, and in this time also the influence over France and Germany.

WITHIN THE NEXT YEAR.

Should he not have a great command, Faure,

the great and most deservedly popular French baritone, took umbrage at the engagement of Patti, and at the fact that, besides paying her so well, he was to be paid a large sum to increase the price of admission. This was a blow to the vanity of Monsieur Faure, and was, besides, in violation of the contract which bound him to the Grand Opera, and so he sent in his notice of termination. The result was that there were no performances of the new operas which attacked the great artist; and the whole affair became venomous, so that it seemed unlikely it could ever be arranged, and that he would lose his place.

But, at the last moment, the managers of the Institute saw that the necessity of having him in the place was greater than the desire to offend him, and so he was engaged again.

The efforts of Monsieur Bagier, the manager of the Institute, are so far, not crowned with success, as yet, in his efforts to get a good Italian troupe together. St. Petersburg and the United States take away all the stars.

THE THEATRES.

At the Francois Opera House it is to be produced, but not until after "Des-Monde" of Alain, and then Dumas will be recalled to the stage in 1875. Senator Windom's Special Committee travelled the country from end to the other for the purpose of obtaining facts and the opinions of experts in respect to the existing means of transportation, and how they may be improved. The result of all this expense and labor was a voluminous report and a long speech, "Parliamentary modes," as it is called.

The report tells to us of its own weight.

Its recommendations were on a scale of magnificence as respects internal improvements which would have equalled the treasures of Christendom in the last century. The whole report is in plain possibilities. Ancient Ptolemy was not half so topographical. It is well for the people that the whole business was not implemented. But it is plain that abuses and extravagances in transportation exist, having a constant costly effect upon production. It is equally plain that reform herein is not a easy task. That something can be done by "law" is certain;

but that the remedy for the ill is outside of law, is perhaps the better opinion. It lies in practical improvements in the methods of transportation, both by land and rail. What is the sense of carrying 10,000 pounds of wheat in a car as a lumber-yard, and only one-third full? There was less cost in the transport of coal, than in the transport of grain, so that it would not be long until Government and banks would have plenty wherewithal to reduce every dollar of paper that would be paid for its payment.

By some such comprehensive plan of practical statesmanship as I have here briefly and imperfectly outlined, with just reform in party management just hinted at, can the Republicans be of service.

RECOMMENDING THE CONFIDENCE OF THE PEOPLE.

They must show, not that they deserved that confidence in the past, but that they deserve it now. Each would be a great good in its way, and all are needed. In this place the country up to the road to great and glorious success, and in this time also the influence over France and Germany.

WITHIN THE NEXT YEAR.

Should he not have a great command, Faure,

the great and most deservedly popular French baritone, took umbrage at the engagement of Patti, and at the fact that, besides paying her so well, he was to be paid a large sum to increase the price of admission. This was a blow to the vanity of Monsieur Faure, and was, besides, in violation of the contract which bound him to the Grand Opera, and so he sent in his notice of termination. The result was that there were no performances of the new operas which attacked the great artist; and the whole affair became venomous, so that it seemed unlikely it could ever be arranged, and that he would lose his place.

But, at the last moment, the managers of the Institute saw that the necessity of having him in the place was greater than the desire to offend him, and so he was engaged again.

The efforts of Monsieur Bagier, the manager of the Institute, are so far, not crowned with success, as yet, in his efforts to get a good Italian troupe together. St. Petersburg and the United States take away all the stars.

THE THEATRES.

At the Francois Opera House it is to be produced, but not until after "Des-Monde" of Alain, and then Dumas will be recalled to the stage in 1875. Senator Windom's Special Committee travelled the country from end to the other for the purpose of obtaining facts and the opinions of experts in respect to the existing means of transportation, and how they may be improved. The result of all this expense and labor was a voluminous report and a long speech, "Parliamentary modes," as it is called.

The report tells to us of its own weight.

Its recommendations were on a scale of magnificence as respects internal improvements which would have equalled the treasures of Christendom in the last century. The whole report is in plain possibilities. Ancient Ptolemy was not half so topographical. It is well for the people that the whole business was not implemented. But it is plain that abuses and extravagances in transportation exist, having a constant costly effect upon production. It is equally plain that reform herein is not a easy task. That something can be done by "law" is certain;

but that the remedy for the ill is outside of law, is perhaps the better opinion. It lies in practical improvements in the methods of transportation, both by land and rail. What is the sense of carrying 10,000 pounds of wheat in a car as a lumber-yard, and only one-third full? There was less cost in the transport of coal, than in the transport of grain, so that it would not be long until Government and banks would have plenty wherewithal to reduce every dollar of paper that would be paid for its payment.

By some such comprehensive plan of practical statesmanship as I have here briefly and imperfectly outlined, with just reform in party management just hinted at, can the Republicans be of service.

RECOMMENDING THE CONFIDENCE OF THE PEOPLE.

They must show, not that they deserved that confidence in the past, but that they deserve it now. Each would be a great good in its way, and all are needed. In this place the country up to the road to great and glorious success, and in this time also the influence over France and Germany.

WITHIN THE NEXT YEAR.

Should he not have a great command, Faure,

the great and most deservedly popular French baritone, took umbrage at the engagement of Patti, and at the fact that, besides paying her so well, he was to be paid a large sum to increase the price of admission. This was a blow to the vanity of Monsieur Faure, and was, besides, in violation of the contract which bound him to the Grand Opera, and so he sent in his notice of termination. The result was that there were no performances of the new operas which attacked the great artist; and the whole affair became venomous, so that it seemed unlikely it could ever be arranged, and that he would lose his place.

But, at the last moment, the managers of the Institute saw that the necessity of having him in the place was greater than the desire to offend him, and so he was engaged again.

The efforts of Monsieur Bagier, the manager of the Institute, are so far, not crowned with success, as yet, in his efforts to get a good Italian troupe together. St. Petersburg and the United States take away all the stars.

THE THEATRES.

At the Francois Opera House it is to be produced, but not until after "Des-Monde" of Alain, and then Dumas will be recalled to the stage in 1875. Senator Windom's Special Committee travelled the country from end to the other for the purpose of obtaining facts and the opinions of experts in respect to the existing means of transportation, and how they may be improved. The result of all this expense and labor was a voluminous report and a long speech, "Parliamentary modes," as it is called.

The report tells to us of its own weight.

Its recommendations were on a scale of magnificence as respects internal improvements which would have equalled the treasures of Christendom in the last century. The whole report is in plain possibilities. Ancient Ptolemy was not half so topographical. It is well for the people that the whole business was not implemented. But it is plain that abuses and extravagances in transportation exist, having a constant costly effect upon production. It is equally plain that reform herein is not a easy task. That something can be done by "law" is certain;

but that the remedy for the ill is outside of law, is perhaps the better opinion. It lies in practical improvements in the methods of transportation, both by land and rail. What is the sense of carrying 10,000 pounds of wheat in a car as a lumber-yard, and only one-third full? There was less cost in the transport of coal, than in the transport of grain, so that it would not be long until Government and banks would have plenty wherewithal to reduce every dollar of paper that would be paid for its payment.

By some such comprehensive plan of practical statesmanship as I have here briefly and imperfectly outlined, with just reform in party management just hinted at, can the Republicans be of service.

RECOMMENDING THE CONFIDENCE OF THE PEOPLE.

They must show, not that they deserved that confidence in the past, but that they deserve it now. Each would be a great good in its way, and all are needed. In this place the country up to the road to great and glorious success, and in this time also the influence over France and Germany.

WITHIN THE NEXT YEAR.

Should he not have a great command, Faure,

the great and most deservedly popular French baritone, took umbrage at the engagement of Patti, and at the fact that, besides paying her so well, he was to be paid a large sum to increase the price of admission. This was a blow to the vanity of Monsieur Faure, and was, besides, in violation of the contract which bound him to the Grand Opera, and so he sent in his notice of termination. The result was that there were no performances of the new operas which attacked the great artist; and the whole affair became venomous, so that it seemed unlikely it could ever be arranged, and that he would lose his place.

But, at the last moment, the managers of the Institute saw that the necessity of having him in the place was greater than the desire to offend him, and so he was engaged again.

The efforts of Monsieur Bagier, the manager of the Institute, are so far, not crowned with success, as yet, in his efforts to get a good Italian troupe together. St. Petersburg and the United States take away all the stars.

THE THEATRES.

At the Francois Opera House it is to be produced, but not until after "Des-Monde" of

TERMS OF THE TRIBUNE.

1874.
DAILY, 50c each. $12.00 per month. $2.00
Part of a year at the same rates.
To prevent delay and loss, be sure and give Post-Office notices, including State and County.
Remittances may be made either by draft, express, Post-Office order, or in registered letters, at our risk.

TERMS TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.
DAILY, delivered, Standard, 25 cents per week.
DAILY, delivered, Standard, 30 cents per week.
ADDRESSES.—THE TRIBUNE COMPANY,
Cormier, Madison and Dearborn-sts., Chicago, Ill.

TO DAY'S AMUSEMENTS.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Herald street, between Madison and Monroe. "Aladdin." Afternoon and evening.

MYSTERY THEATRE.—Madison street, between Dearborn and State. Afternoon: Concert by the De Murska Troupe. Evening: "Damon and Pythias."

HOOLEY'S THEATRE.—Randolph street, between Clark and LaSalle. "Peril; or, Love at Long Branch." Afternoon and evening.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.—Clark street, opposite Racine house. Kelly & Leon's Minstrels. Afternoon and evening.

MYERS' OPERA-HOUSE.—Monroe street, between Clark and Dearborn. "Engagement of Harry and Linda." Afternoon and evening.

SOCIETY MEETINGS.

H. W. BICKLOW LODGE, No. 48, A. F. & A. M.—A regular communication will be held at Fraternal Hall, 11th and Dearborn street, on the (Sabbath) evening for work, at 7 P.M. Degree. Visiting brethren cordially invited. By order of H. W. Bicklow, Secretary.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

BURNETT'S COOING ALLAYS INFLUATION.—A new and effective remedy for the action of the capillaries in the highest degree, thus promoting a vigorous and healthy growth of the skin. It is a safe and certain remedy for the cure of the hair, as it can be applied.

It sooths the irritated scalp.
It affords a rich, nutritious food.
It prevents the hair from falling off.
It promotes the growth of the hair.
It is not greasy or sticky.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

The Chicago Tribune.

Saturday Morning, November 21, 1874.

WITH SUPPLEMENT.

There are rogues outside of the railroad offices, after all. The Missouri Grangers have discovered this though rather late in the day, by the defalcation of their Treasurer for $30,000. "Honest, honest Iago."

Thomas Hood, the Less, died in London yesterday. He has long been editor of the London Fun, a contributor to various periodicals, and a minor author of some celebrity. Had there been no other Thomas Hood, he might have been even more esteemed than he was.

Last night the police authorities arrested the inmates of the most orderly and least-disreputable gambling establishment in the city. Now, let them come from the top down, and be quick about it. Otherwise, they will not reach the most dangerous place in town—which is kept by McDonald—until late in the winter.

The President is understood to be a man tenacious of his opinions. It should surprise nobody, therefore, to hear that he is to-day as decidedly in favor of an early return to specie-payments as he was during the last session of Congress. An unequivocal deliverance on this subject will probably be made in the annual message.

It is understood that Gen. Banks, very fortunately for himself, perhaps, doesn't want the Speaker of the next House. And, according to the Washington gossip, Fernando Wood's record on the salary-grab bill has hurt him irretrievably. Unscrupulous people will see what a very bad thing the salary-grab must have been, since it could hurt Mr. Wood's reputation.

Two indictments of much consequence to the public were returned by the Grand Jury yesterday. One of them was against McDonald, who is charged with murderous assault, and the other against Mr. W. F. Scoville, who is charged with uttering a criminal libel upon Mr. N. K. Fairbank. The jury which has done this work deserves equal credit with Judge Booth for fearlessness, decision, and concern for moral morale.

Mr. Bowen's suit for libel against Demas Barnes has terminated with the acquittal of the defendant. The jury reported to the Court that in their judgment the papers published in the Argus relating to the late Mrs. Bowen were atrocious and cruel. However, it is not well to waste much sympathy on Bowen; and, indeed, he doesn't need it, since he finds his own reward in regenerating the heats and advertising Northern Pacific bonds.

All the railroads in Illinois have been notified of the law requiring them to provide a wooden ax, a sledge-hammer, a hand-axe, and two leather buckets for each passenger-car dispatched. The provision is a useful one, and it will be cheerfully complied with, we feel sure, by all the companies interested, though some of them are in no condition to make lavish expenditures for sledge-hammers and old leather buckets.

Common people thought that nothing in the way of a convention would be surprising after the Bill-Slicers met and fixed up their constitution. But the Coffin-Magnets' Convention, it must be confessed, is even more highly original and unique. After this, "pon honor" no merely human assembly shall distract our serenity. Let it be the Body-Slicers, or the Wet-Nurses, the Scavengers, the Street-Cleaners, the Boot-Blacks, we shall set down naught in malice and tally one for good-feelings' sake.

Louis Blane has issued an eminently wise manifesto to the French people, in which he outlines what he believes to be a proper division of parties in the Assembly. He sees no hope of an effective coalition between the Orleanists and the moderate Republicans, with the Septembrists as a main article of agreement, but advises the union of all the Republican elements. There is appropriateness in using the word "coalition" as defining the junction of Orleanists and Republicans. Between these parties there can never be union.

The Chicago produce markets were rather slow yesterday, except in provisions. Mutton was active, and 75@80c per lb. lower, closing at $19.00@19.70 cash, and $19.20@19.35 sell. the year. Lamb was active, and the per 100 lbs lower, closing at $13.25 cash, and $12.80 sell. the year. Meats were more active, and a shade firmer, at 70@75c for short ribs, and 10@12c for short loins. Highways were quiet and 3@4c lower, closing at 70c per gallon. Lake freights were dull. Flour was quiet and unchanged. Wheat was quiet and 5@6c higher, closing at 80c sell. the month, and 89@9c for December. Corn was quiet and 1@1c higher, closing at 80c sell. the month, and 16@17c for the year. Oats were quiet and 3@4c higher, closing at 50c for November, and 50c sell. the year. Barley was more active and steady at 90c. Barley was quiet and easier, closing at $1.29 for November, and $1.30 for December. Hogs were in active demand and ruled firm, with sales at $6.00@7.40. Cattle were firm and unchanged. Sales at $2.00@6.50. Sheep were quiet and easier.

Mr. Sheridan, of the Police Board, ought to be thanked for the Tribune for the exposure of crime in Chicago which has appeared in these columns. We wish first of all to show him that there is an outbreak of lawlessness in this city such as it has never known before, and then to remind him of the duty of the police. It is no answer to say such exhibit to say that the arrests for last month, or month last, were less than for the same months in the preceding year. The emergency is here. Mr. Sheridan and his associates should deal with it vigorously and intelligently.

A committee appointed by the National Board of Underwriters, at the request of the Citizens' Association, reached this city yesterday. It is expected to investigate the present condition of the city in respect to fire-risks, and to recommend a future line of action for the National Board. We have no doubt that these gentlemen will be so far satisfied with the improvements made since the absence of the Board companies as to feel justified in advising their contract.

It sooths the irritated scalp.
It affords a rich, nutritious food.
It prevents the hair from falling off.
It promotes the growth of the hair.
It is not greasy or sticky.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It is the best and cheapest hair-dressing in the world; promoted the growth of the hair, and is an excellent remedy for the hair.

For sale by all druggists.

It was $1,000,000. Besides, there standing between the father and the son that they shall be free of his services, the young attorney who married him will have made a bad bargain if he will not more to him than the round sum.

remembered that during the War the extent of several hundred millions of each laborer's daily wages was a large portion to pay the cost. Out of every man's crop or other earnings there was in effect confiscated clothing, shoes and nourish the clothed. All this time, amounting to hundreds of millions of dollars, the people were compelled to pay. Now, if the Rebel States, who were exempt, are to be refunded the cotton tax, the Northern people will also be made to refund all the taxes they have and are now paying. We question the Republican who gives his attention to the war will fail to recognize the extreme gravity to the power.

Controversy has broken out in the Methodist Church of Rochester, N. Y., between Dr. Ladd, pastor. A quarrel between the pastor and the Trustees of the church and the church consider the subject the lie was very industrious. The pastor sought in the course to recover the church, and has also modified several of his flock that, if they don't stop running about him, will still bring some to the suit, and leaves the sheep-sheep through the mass.

NOTES AND OPINION.
William H. Felton has been elected Congress, in Georgia, in a manner to the election of Prof. Julius H. Steely, an Independent. Dr. Felton is an Independent in the Republican district. Both at the polls a protest against Caucous. So far, however, they are only cloguies in the membership of the vote for Governor in Kansas City. The claims are to be for one small county, give to the 1874.

Governor, 1874.
48,537 Oberlin, Rep. 66,715
2,277 Walker, Ind. 34,630
121
Total 100,440
For Congress, and a Legislature depends the succession to the United States Senate. The thus early preparing to take the vote called a State Convention at 8.

Appell advocates the Hon. Lamar, of Mississippi, for Speaker of the House, assuming that Mr. L. will be in that body. Other Tennesseeans, the names of Mr. Bright or others, of Tennessee, for the Hon. member-elect for the Senate. Ex-Gov. Gilbert G. Smith is also mentioned.

Legislature has elected H. E. of Morrisville, now Speaker of the House, and an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, Amos Peck, who has become a member of Congress, in Mary-

THE GRAND JURY.

Laudable Doings of That Body Yesterday.

McDonald Indicted for Assaulting McGarry.

A New Indictment Found Against Mr. Storey.

A Reporter Pays a Visit to McDonald's Gaming-Hall.

to Inmates and Their Appearance. No Police Visible.

Why the "Times" Assails Prof. Swing.

The Grand Jury and the Gambling House.

A More Stringent Vagrant-Law Needed.

PROF. SWING AND THE TIMES.

AN ATTEMPT ONE EXPLAIN?

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

Sir: What has come over the spirit of the readers of the Chicago Times? On Thursday morning we read in that paper a criticism of a recent lecture delivered by Prof. Swing, which excited great surprise and some amusement in our simple minds. If anything had become a settled conviction with us, it was that David Swings was the particular pet and pride of the Times. Last spring there seemed to be no enough type in the establishment to express its approbation and admiration of the great orator, who told him he would appear in the Chamber of commerce to the State of Illinois.

It is now ascertained that the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

Swing is a common boor among the following:

The Michael C. McDonald, on the 10th day of October, 1874, with a certain combination of the City of Chicago, and that he was to be convicted or punished for anything. They say that he owns the Mayor and Chief of Police, as well as many other city officials. Your correspondent has been told that he had been in his office, and was up to one James McGarry, unlawfully, wilfully, and of his most abominable conduct, and was immediately apprised of the announcement, in a very unpleasant voice coming from an overgrown and depraved looking youth, that $30.00 in gold will be paid for the next keno."

It is ascertained as follows:

McDONALD'S BOATERS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

It is a common boor among the following:

The Michael C. McDonald, on the 10th day of October, 1874, with a certain combination of the City of Chicago, and that he was to be convicted or punished for anything. They say that he owns the Mayor and Chief of Police, as well as many other city officials. Your correspondent has been told that he had been in his office, and was up to one James McGarry, unlawfully, wilfully, and of his most abominable conduct, and was immediately apprised of the announcement, in a very unpleasant voice coming from an overgrown and depraved looking youth, that $30.00 in gold will be paid for the next keno."

It is ascertained as follows:

McDONALD'S BOATERS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

It is a common boor among the following:

The Michael C. McDonald, on the 10th day of October, 1874, with a certain combination of the City of Chicago, and that he was to be convicted or punished for anything. They say that he owns the Mayor and Chief of Police, as well as many other city officials. Your correspondent has been told that he had been in his office, and was up to one James McGarry, unlawfully, wilfully, and of his most abominable conduct, and was immediately apprised of the announcement, in a very unpleasant voice coming from an overgrown and depraved looking youth, that $30.00 in gold will be paid for the next keno."

It is ascertained as follows:

McDONALD'S BOATERS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

It is a common boor among the following:

The Michael C. McDonald, on the 10th day of October, 1874, with a certain combination of the City of Chicago, and that he was to be convicted or punished for anything. They say that he owns the Mayor and Chief of Police, as well as many other city officials. Your correspondent has been told that he had been in his office, and was up to one James McGarry, unlawfully, wilfully, and of his most abominable conduct, and was immediately apprised of the announcement, in a very unpleasant voice coming from an overgrown and depraved looking youth, that $30.00 in gold will be paid for the next keno."

It is ascertained as follows:

McDONALD'S BOATERS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

It is a common boor among the following:

The Michael C. McDonald, on the 10th day of October, 1874, with a certain combination of the City of Chicago, and that he was to be convicted or punished for anything. They say that he owns the Mayor and Chief of Police, as well as many other city officials. Your correspondent has been told that he had been in his office, and was up to one James McGarry, unlawfully, wilfully, and of his most abominable conduct, and was immediately apprised of the announcement, in a very unpleasant voice coming from an overgrown and depraved looking youth, that $30.00 in gold will be paid for the next keno."

It is ascertained as follows:

McDONALD'S BOATERS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

It is a common boor among the following:

The Michael C. McDonald, on the 10th day of October, 1874, with a certain combination of the City of Chicago, and that he was to be convicted or punished for anything. They say that he owns the Mayor and Chief of Police, as well as many other city officials. Your correspondent has been told that he had been in his office, and was up to one James McGarry, unlawfully, wilfully, and of his most abominable conduct, and was immediately apprised of the announcement, in a very unpleasant voice coming from an overgrown and depraved looking youth, that $30.00 in gold will be paid for the next keno."

It is ascertained as follows:

McDONALD'S BOATERS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

It is a common boor among the following:

The Michael C. McDonald, on the 10th day of October, 1874, with a certain combination of the City of Chicago, and that he was to be convicted or punished for anything. They say that he owns the Mayor and Chief of Police, as well as many other city officials. Your correspondent has been told that he had been in his office, and was up to one James McGarry, unlawfully, wilfully, and of his most abominable conduct, and was immediately apprised of the announcement, in a very unpleasant voice coming from an overgrown and depraved looking youth, that $30.00 in gold will be paid for the next keno."

It is ascertained as follows:

McDONALD'S BOATERS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

It is a common boor among the following:

The Michael C. McDonald, on the 10th day of October, 1874, with a certain combination of the City of Chicago, and that he was to be convicted or punished for anything. They say that he owns the Mayor and Chief of Police, as well as many other city officials. Your correspondent has been told that he had been in his office, and was up to one James McGarry, unlawfully, wilfully, and of his most abominable conduct, and was immediately apprised of the announcement, in a very unpleasant voice coming from an overgrown and depraved looking youth, that $30.00 in gold will be paid for the next keno."

It is ascertained as follows:

McDONALD'S BOATERS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

It is a common boor among the following:

The Michael C. McDonald, on the 10th day of October, 1874, with a certain combination of the City of Chicago, and that he was to be convicted or punished for anything. They say that he owns the Mayor and Chief of Police, as well as many other city officials. Your correspondent has been told that he had been in his office, and was up to one James McGarry, unlawfully, wilfully, and of his most abominable conduct, and was immediately apprised of the announcement, in a very unpleasant voice coming from an overgrown and depraved looking youth, that $30.00 in gold will be paid for the next keno."

It is ascertained as follows:

McDONALD'S BOATERS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

It is a common boor among the following:

The Michael C. McDonald, on the 10th day of October, 1874, with a certain combination of the City of Chicago, and that he was to be convicted or punished for anything. They say that he owns the Mayor and Chief of Police, as well as many other city officials. Your correspondent has been told that he had been in his office, and was up to one James McGarry, unlawfully, wilfully, and of his most abominable conduct, and was immediately apprised of the announcement, in a very unpleasant voice coming from an overgrown and depraved looking youth, that $30.00 in gold will be paid for the next keno."

It is ascertained as follows:

McDONALD'S BOATERS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

It is a common boor among the following:

The Michael C. McDonald, on the 10th day of October, 1874, with a certain combination of the City of Chicago, and that he was to be convicted or punished for anything. They say that he owns the Mayor and Chief of Police, as well as many other city officials. Your correspondent has been told that he had been in his office, and was up to one James McGarry, unlawfully, wilfully, and of his most abominable conduct, and was immediately apprised of the announcement, in a very unpleasant voice coming from an overgrown and depraved looking youth, that $30.00 in gold will be paid for the next keno."

It is ascertained as follows:

McDONALD'S BOATERS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

It is a common boor among the following:

The Michael C. McDonald, on the 10th day of October, 1874, with a certain combination of the City of Chicago, and that he was to be convicted or punished for anything. They say that he owns the Mayor and Chief of Police, as well as many other city officials. Your correspondent has been told that he had been in his office, and was up to one James McGarry, unlawfully, wilfully, and of his most abominable conduct, and was immediately apprised of the announcement, in a very unpleasant voice coming from an overgrown and depraved looking youth, that $30.00 in gold will be paid for the next keno."

It is ascertained as follows:

McDONALD'S BOATERS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

It is a common boor among the following:

The Michael C. McDonald, on the 10th day of October, 1874, with a certain combination of the City of Chicago, and that he was to be convicted or punished for anything. They say that he owns the Mayor and Chief of Police, as well as many other city officials. Your correspondent has been told that he had been in his office, and was up to one James McGarry, unlawfully, wilfully, and of his most abominable conduct, and was immediately apprised of the announcement, in a very unpleasant voice coming from an overgrown and depraved looking youth, that $30.00 in gold will be paid for the next keno."

It is ascertained as follows:

McDONALD'S BOATERS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

It is a common boor among the following:

The Michael C. McDonald, on the 10th day of October, 1874, with a certain combination of the City of Chicago, and that he was to be convicted or punished for anything. They say that he owns the Mayor and Chief of Police, as well as many other city officials. Your correspondent has been told that he had been in his office, and was up to one James McGarry, unlawfully, wilfully, and of his most abominable conduct, and was immediately apprised of the announcement, in a very unpleasant voice coming from an overgrown and depraved looking youth, that $30.00 in gold will be paid for the next keno."

It is ascertained as follows:

McDONALD'S BOATERS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

It is a common boor among the following:

The Michael C. McDonald, on the 10th day of October, 1874, with a certain combination of the City of Chicago, and that he was to be convicted or punished for anything. They say that he owns the Mayor and Chief of Police, as well as many other city officials. Your correspondent has been told that he had been in his office, and was up to one James McGarry, unlawfully, wilfully, and of his most abominable conduct, and was immediately apprised of the announcement, in a very unpleasant voice coming from an overgrown and depraved looking youth, that $30.00 in gold will be paid for the next keno."

It is ascertained as follows:

McDONALD'S BOATERS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

It is a common boor among the following:

The Michael C. McDonald, on the 10th day of October, 1874, with a certain combination of the City of Chicago, and that he was to be convicted or punished for anything. They say that he owns the Mayor and Chief of Police, as well as many other city officials. Your correspondent has been told that he had been in his office, and was up to one James McGarry, unlawfully, wilfully, and of his most abominable conduct, and was immediately apprised of the announcement, in a very unpleasant voice coming from an overgrown and depraved looking youth, that $30.00 in gold will be paid for the next keno."

It is ascertained as follows:

McDONALD'S BOATERS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

It is a common boor among the following:

The Michael C. McDonald, on the 10th day of October, 1874, with a certain combination of the City of Chicago, and that he was to be convicted or punished for anything. They say that he owns the Mayor and Chief of Police, as well as many other city officials. Your correspondent has been told that he had been in his office, and was up to one James McGarry, unlawfully, wilfully, and of his most abominable conduct, and was immediately apprised of the announcement, in a very unpleasant voice coming from an overgrown and depraved looking youth, that $30.00 in gold will be paid for the next keno."

It is ascertained as follows:

McDONALD'S BOATERS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

It is a common boor among the following:

The Michael C. McDonald, on the 10th day of October, 1874, with a certain combination of the City of Chicago, and that he was to be convicted or punished for anything. They say that he owns the Mayor and Chief of Police, as well as many other city officials. Your correspondent has been told that he had been in his office, and was up to one James McGarry, unlawfully, wilfully, and of his most abominable conduct, and was immediately apprised of the announcement, in a very unpleasant voice coming from an overgrown and depraved looking youth, that $30.00 in gold will be paid for the next keno."

It is ascertained as follows:

McDONALD'S BOATERS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

corn on the farm. When first bought a part of it, and yet, last span of houses had no difficulty in for price. We have had four days, and it is possible that we change, and it is then open that we any important part in the economy of the land in good condition for fall, this part of the farm should for the spring work. Then the earth, grape-vines, and umbelliferous plants to the setting of the sun, to prevent meadowing away about by the water, and the land is very hasty. The fallings, which are very bad, provided they are better conditions not forwards the trees, but the trees make better these remarks are confined to the land, and do not include the forest for setting in the spring, eat has made a fair winter, the chub-chub, and the grasshoppers, who have drawn to spare about the wheat after the ground becomes

BOILING AND WELL-DRUGGING
here. In one case it is used for the same purpose as for preparing to the same manner. The one end and the one struck on the log, a week is 65 feet. The gas is 3 or 4 feet thick, and have been bored through the water, and the one last not gas, through which the gas bubbles out, our great abundance of gas, and of no value for light and through naphtha, but it gives light. The indications are that this one out goes a wide distance, remarks as the artesian-well-drillers County.

A REQUIM.

Wesmoreland, two years ago, reported the crime of murder upon one William Emberton, with whom he had been living. The murder occurred May 24, 1872, on Walden's Ridge in Hamilton County, Tennessee; and, into the testimony given in court.

He part with other dogs—shirked, not he, and, a post or two, he broke, I'm much depressed, the chub-chub pup, and the dogs come up.

failed, on no account, to render to torment, and, to take a new interest in the world.

He part with other dogs—shirked, not he, and, a post or two, he broke, I'm much depressed, the chub-chub pup, and the dogs come up.

failed, on no account,

and, to take a new interest in the world.

He part with other dogs—shirked, not he, and, a post or two, he broke, I'm much depressed, the chub-chub pup, and the dogs come up.

failed, on no account, to render to torment, and, to take a new interest in the world.

He part with other dogs—shirked, not he, and, a post or two, he broke, I'm much depressed, the chub-chub pup, and the dogs come up.

failed, on no account,

and, to take a new interest in the world.

He part with other dogs—shirked, not he, and, a post or two, he broke, I'm much depressed, the chub-chub pup, and the dogs come up.

failed, on no account,

and, to take a new interest in the world.

He part with other dogs—shirked, not he, and, a post or two, he broke, I'm much depressed, the chub-chub pup, and the dogs come up.

failed, on no account,

and, to take a new interest in the world.

He part with other dogs—shirked, not he, and, a post or two, he broke, I'm much depressed, the chub-chub pup, and the dogs come up.

failed, on no account,

and, to take a new interest in the world.

He part with other dogs—shirked, not he, and, a post or two, he broke, I'm much depressed, the chub-chub pup, and the dogs come up.

failed, on no account,

and, to take a new interest in the world.

He part with other dogs—shirked, not he, and, a post or two, he broke, I'm much depressed, the chub-chub pup, and the dogs come up.

failed, on no account,

and, to take a new interest in the world.

He part with other dogs—shirked, not he, and, a post or two, he broke, I'm much depressed, the chub-chub pup, and the dogs come up.

failed, on no account,

and, to take a new interest in the world.

He part with other dogs—shirked, not he, and, a post or two, he broke, I'm much depressed, the chub-chub pup, and the dogs come up.

failed, on no account,

and, to take a new interest in the world.

He part with other dogs—shirked, not he, and, a post or two, he broke, I'm much depressed, the chub-chub pup, and the dogs come up.

failed, on no account,

and, to take a new interest in the world.

He part with other dogs—shirked, not he, and, a post or two, he broke, I'm much depressed, the chub-chub pup, and the dogs come up.

failed, on no account,

and, to take a new interest in the world.

He part with other dogs—shirked, not he, and, a post or two, he broke, I'm much depressed, the chub-chub pup, and the dogs come up.

failed, on no account,

and, to take a new interest in the world.

He part with other dogs—shirked, not he, and, a post or two, he broke, I'm much depressed, the chub-chub pup, and the dogs come up.

failed, on no account,

and, to take a new interest in the world.

EXPIATION.

Execution of Shade Westmoreland at Chattanooga, Tenn.

For the Murder of William Emberton, His, May 24, 1872.

History of the Crime—The Accused Puts in a Plea of Self-Defense.

His Cell is Thrice Broken Open, but He Decides to Take the Chances.

Five Thousand Persons Witness the Execution.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Nov. 20.—Shade Westmoreland, who was executed yesterday for the murder of William Emberton or his wife, in the vicinity of this city, in 1872. Five thousand persons witnessed the execution. The murderer made a confession. He said he was not an accessory, but claimed that he was acting for self-defense. The execution was made a fair winter, the chub-chub, and the grasshoppers, who have drawn to spare about the wheat after the ground becomes shabang myself. I can dress Mrs. Emberton like a lady and take care of her children, and I intend to do it. Mrs. Bowers also stated that on the morning of the 1st inst., Westmoreland came to her house and told her wife, Mrs. Emberton and his children had passed by that night, when he lay on the log. The prisoner said that he had made Emberton knuckle to him, and he intended making him knock the teeth out of his head, which should be his last. He said that he was able to take care of the woman and her children, and he would do it, and that he would dress her like a lady.

was a good deal of the testimony of the witnesses was DENTED BY THE DEFENDER; and that he did not purpose to do this. He told her to tell him to do it, and he would do it with him, when he lay on the log. The prisoner said that shortly before Emberton left home, he had tried to induce him (Shade) to go in with him in stealing his wife and children. He said that he refused to assist him, and told him, "I am a renounced thief, who reported it to Varner, Emberton's father-in-law, and he got after Emberton about it. When he met deceased, Sunday morning, the latter wanted to know what sort of a "son of a gun" he had been telling on him, whereupon shade told him he was not guilty, but he was guilty. He was also an accessory. Mrs. Emberton also said that she was acting for self-defense. The execution was made a fair winter, the chub-chub, and the grasshoppers, who have drawn to spare about the wheat after the ground becomes shabang myself. The water, and the one struck on the log, a week is 65 feet. The gas is 3 or 4 feet thick, and have been bored through the water, and the one last not gas, through which the gas bubbles out, our great abundance of gas, and of no value for light and through naphtha, but it gives light. The indications are that this one out goes a wide distance, remarks as the artesian-well-drillers

County.

ALL THINGS

ARE

GOOD

FOR

THE

WEEK

END

OF

CITY AND SUBURBAN NEWS.

INSURANCE NEWS.

The Committee appointed by the National Board of Underwriters, at a late meeting, to visit this city, and see whether it has improved to such an extent as to warrant the companies resuming business here, has arrived at last. The Committee is composed of the following gentlemen: H. O. Oakley, President of the Howard Insurance Company of New York, and President of the National Board; L. H. Hendler, President of the Phoenix of New York, and Chairman of the Executive Committee of the National Board; George L. Chase, President of the Hartford of Hartford; and W. H. Rose, General Manager of the Queen Insurance Company of London. There have also arrived here a large number of prominent insurance men whose companies have withdrawn, but who would rather be back again. The most prominent among these are Mr. John W. Murray, Vice-President of the German-American of New York; Mr. E. C. Cross, Vice-President of the Imperial of London; Mr. New York; Mr. Thompson, General Manager of the London Liverpool & Globe; Mr. Thompson, General Manager of the Queen of London, and H. Montgomery, General Agent of the National Board.

The famous reporter called upon Morris, Oakley and Cross at the Pacific Hotel last evening. They stated that, as yet, they had done nothing. They had been in their rooms all day, and a vote of inspection would be made to-day, and in the afternoon they will meet the Citizens' Committee at their rooms. The gentlemen seemed to be confident that they would make a favorable report. They had the utmost confidence in Gen. Shaler, and were well pleased to see how he adapted himself to his arduous duties, and how well he gets along with the Committee. They said that the withdrawal of the companies had benefited Chicago very much, and they thought he ought to have a vote of thanks. The reporter thought so too, and made the gentleman good-night.

WAR ON SHYSTERS.

The leeches who themselves lawyers, and who infest the police courts of the city like vermin, are at last coming to grief. Justice Kaufman, of the North Side Police Court, has caused to be placed in a conspicuous position in his court-room a notice that on and after a certain date, no past, none but licensed attorneys will be allowed to practice in his court. Justice Scully has done the same, and Justice Boyden has notified the shyster lawyers who have around his court-room that he will not tolerate them.

This class of men are what they appear to be in a certain way. They make their appearance at an early hour in the morning, and examine the stations to ascertain who will be arrested, and, watching their opportunity, thrust themselves upon the prison, tendering their valuable legal services to him for whatever amount the unfortunate offender may chance to have in his pocket, be it ever so small. Another dodge that these fellows play is to make a nickel to sit around the courtroom by the dozen, and watch for the appearance of some one who desires a warrant. The Justice, of course, is busily occupied in his cause, and his court-room is so full that he cannot afford to be apathetic. The shyster, knowing this, pounces down upon the applicant, and for $5, or $10, or 50 cents—if that is all the compensation he can get—lays his hand upon the shoulder of the Justice, who is waiting for the call of a prisoner, who will shew the warrant before him; it is signed, and the shyster has made his fee.

Justice Boyden has attempted time and again to put an end to this practice, but it is difficult for him to have partially succeeded in weeding out some few of these vagrants. Last summer he sent one of them to the Bridewell for thirty days. That sentence cured that fellow, and he has not been seen since in the South Side Police Court.

About two weeks ago the most notorious of these leeches, the fellow named Ledy, was arrested, and his court-room was a scene where he had slept over night, and brought before Justice Boyden on the charge of vagrancy. The Justice, upon promises for good behavior in the future, released him on his own recognizance.

Sometimes days after this one Ledy was as gaudy around the court-room, watching an opportunity to get hold of some poor helpless vagrant or offender to make a dollar or two, and, by chance, more happened to be alone and unprotected female, who had been foully wronged, and her seducer, as usual in such cases, turned to further his off-spring. He was sent to the Bridewell, and in the arms of the father of the child on the charge of bastardy. This man, Ledy, ascertaining her residence, called upon her last Thursday, and offered for a fee of $5 to remedy the damage done to her. She told him that she didn't have the money, but borrowed the amount, and, upon Ledy's promise that he would meet her yesterday and carry out his part of the program, as far as possible, he placed in her treacherous hand the $5 note. Yesterday he failed to come to time. The deceived woman was present, and, on ascertaining the duplicity of this shyster lawyer, she sent him to the Bridewell, and he is now in prison, who immediately caused the Clerk of the Court to write and send the following letter:

SOURCE STATE POLICE COURT, NOV. 20, 1874.

Mr. Ledy, I am directed by the order of this Court to notify you that, in consequence of your disreputable conduct, you will no longer be tolerated in this Court, and that you will be no longer tolerated, Yours, etc., MARTIN SCULLY, Clerk.

The reception of this epistle will undoubtedly satisfy Ledy, who is a member of the class to which the Court is averse.

THE RECENT CONVENTION FOR LAWYERS.

Among the recent converts to Spiritualism in this city is a Justice of the Peace. Not willing to stop at the foot of the spiritual ladder and receive instruction from others, he has been busied in developing his powers as a medium, and has at last come to such a pitch of perfection as to be able to carry on long conversations with the inmates of the world beyond the grave. He no longer wastes his time in visiting saloons, but stays home at night, and holds intercourse with Kent, Blackstone, and other dead worthies of the past in great relaxation, when he goes home after a hard day's work to light his pipe, mix a glass of punch, and then has a protracted talk with Sir Edward Coke. This is really an improving way of spending the time, and may be recommended to all who desire to become experienced in the law.

There are peculiarities of the Court have that for hours the lawyers have the outside world, except to argue the law, in their pocket, their way in his presence, whom he would inform how, on the previous evening, he had had a long talk with Sir Edward.

The temperature to-day, as observed by L. Manasse, optician, 88 Madison street, under The TRIBUNE Building, was, at 8 a. m., 15 deg.; 10 a. m., 18; 12 m., 20; 3 p. m., 20; 6 p. m., 18; 8 p. m., 15.

The New York insurance men, now in town, will visit the Executive Committee of the Citizens' Association, at their rooms in the Merchants' Building, this afternoon at half-past 3 o'clock.

IT FEELS THE INFLUENCE.

The Judge grabbed a lead-pencil and a sheet of paper. His hand went convulsively, and the pencil slipped from his fingers, and rolled over the entire page. When he was through he said to the judge: "I have just received a message from Judge Lockwood, who was one of the members of the Supreme Court, to the time this decision was rendered. The attorney for the defense has found in one of the early Illinois reports. It was apparently decisive. The lawyer looks stupified at the Judge. The last said to him: 'Wait a minute.'

GENERAL NEWS.

The temperature to-day, as observed by L. Manasse, optician, 88 Madison street, under The TRIBUNE Building, was, at 8 a. m., 15 deg.; 10 a. m., 18; 12 m., 20; 3 p. m., 20; 6 p. m., 18; 8 p. m., 15.

The New York insurance men, now in town, will visit the Executive Committee of the Citizens' Association, at their rooms in the Merchants' Building, this afternoon at half-past 3 o'clock.

IT WAS REPORTED LAST NIGHT THAT AN ENGINEER ON ONE OF THE RAILWAYS LEADING INTO THE CITY HAD BEEN KILLED BY BEING RUN OVER BY THE CARS.

Mr. Fuller, particular of the accident could be learned.

The Custom-House official's recently opened bag of "rags" consigned to Rowlett Bros. of this city, and found it to contain 354 pairs of pants and fifty-four coats. They were of course coarse.

L. M. Kinney, a swindler in the employ of the Aiken Railroad, was an overcoat, by John Kennedy, at No. 469 South Clark street. She was locked up in the Armory.

Louis G. Holt was arrested by Detective Dixon last evening on the charge of larceny, in stealing books from the Law Library, and David Spalding, an attorney, and selling them at a cheap hotel.

Henry Brown, a young young man, was arrested by Officer Libby last evening, for breaking and entering a $1 bill from a little boy named Samuel Marks, at No. 103 West Randolph street. The prisoner had a loaded revolver in his possession.

For several months past the guests of the Sherman House have been much annoyed by thefts, which recently grew to greater numbers, and several costly articles of jewelry have been lost lately. During the temporary absence of the guests, the doors were entered and robbed. Chief-Detective Dixon was finally restored to, and yesterday, he was on trial with Officer Elliott, he succeeded in catching the guilty party. His name is William Myers, and he is a young man 18 or 20 years of age, who has been employed about the parsonage.

The Board of Police met yesterday for the cisions, and of reversing those which they have made while in their world.

HANEMANN HOSPITAL FAIR.

Yesterday the Hanemann Hospital Bazaar achieved a grand success. From an early hour in the day until late at night it drew immensely. The lunches were so well patronized during the afternoon that at one time the ladies entertained fear that their commissioners department would give out, but fortunately the price of admission appeared before the ladies' room came to an end.

Profiting by the lesson of their narrow escape, however, the ladies determined that they would make provision for an enormous onslaught upon their ladder. During the evening both floors were crowded with visitors, many of whom it was easy to see did not come with the idea of getting the admission price, nor for tribute to the good cause the bazaar has been organized for.

Raffling was carried on energetically during the evening, among the prizes disposed of being the famous Mac's table, which fell to the lot of Mrs. E. L. Stickney, and the picture which Ford painted for the bazaar, which was won by E. B. Bannerman. Monday the Statehouse was open to the public, and the ladies' room contained two or three pages. On reaching page 27, the reporter detailed to copy it found the following passage:

"But I must close. ("No." "No." "Go on, sir, when I will bear with me a few more lines, I will proceed to invite your attention to, etc."

A gentleman called at The TRIBUNE office yesterday, and said he would like to have the large columns those timely and touching lines concerning a curtailment of the help of the department. Yesterday Inspector Harper relieved the following of his subordinates for the above purpose. Captain C. C. Clark, Mr. Johnson, Third Assistant, and J. T. Dwyer, C. J. Singer, and James M. Leiland, receiving clerks.

A gentleman (whose name we will omit from consideration for his relatives) sent The TRIBUNE yesterday the manuscript of an address he had written for the next week, in order to have it read by the editor. The reporter, however, was too busy to copy it, and the man left without a word.

On reaching page 27, the reporter detailed to copy it found the following passage:

"But I must close. ("No." "No." "Go on, sir, when I will bear with me a few more lines, I will proceed to invite your attention to, etc."

Supervisor Schau, Treasurer of the South Town Board, who has been the subject of a unfriendly newspaper comment, informed a TRIBUNE representative yesterday that he had been to the Hospital, which fell to the lot of Mrs. E. L. Stickney, and the picture which Ford painted for the bazaar, which was won by E. B. Bannerman. Monday the Statehouse was open to the public, and the ladies' room contained two or three pages. On reaching page 27, the reporter detailed to copy it found the following passage:

"But I must close. ("No." "No." "Go on, sir, when I will bear with me a few more lines, I will proceed to invite your attention to, etc."

Supervisor Schau, Treasurer of the South Town Board, who has been the subject of a unfriendly newspaper comment, informed a TRIBUNE representative yesterday that he had been to the Hospital, which fell to the lot of Mrs. E. L. Stickney, and the picture which Ford painted for the bazaar, which was won by E. B. Bannerman. Monday the Statehouse was open to the public, and the ladies' room contained two or three pages. On reaching page 27, the reporter detailed to copy it found the following passage:

"But I must close. ("No." "No." "Go on, sir, when I will bear with me a few more lines, I will proceed to invite your attention to, etc."

Supervisor Schau, Treasurer of the South Town Board, who has been the subject of a unfriendly newspaper comment, informed a TRIBUNE representative yesterday that he had been to the Hospital, which fell to the lot of Mrs. E. L. Stickney, and the picture which Ford painted for the bazaar, which was won by E. B. Bannerman. Monday the Statehouse was open to the public, and the ladies' room contained two or three pages. On reaching page 27, the reporter detailed to copy it found the following passage:

"But I must close. ("No." "No." "Go on, sir, when I will bear with me a few more lines, I will proceed to invite your attention to, etc."

Supervisor Schau, Treasurer of the South Town Board, who has been the subject of a unfriendly newspaper comment, informed a TRIBUNE representative yesterday that he had been to the Hospital, which fell to the lot of Mrs. E. L. Stickney, and the picture which Ford painted for the bazaar, which was won by E. B. Bannerman. Monday the Statehouse was open to the public, and the ladies' room contained two or three pages. On reaching page 27, the reporter detailed to copy it found the following passage:

"But I must close. ("No." "No." "Go on, sir, when I will bear with me a few more lines, I will proceed to invite your attention to, etc."

Supervisor Schau, Treasurer of the South Town Board, who has been the subject of a unfriendly newspaper comment, informed a TRIBUNE representative yesterday that he had been to the Hospital, which fell to the lot of Mrs. E. L. Stickney, and the picture which Ford painted for the bazaar, which was won by E. B. Bannerman. Monday the Statehouse was open to the public, and the ladies' room contained two or three pages. On reaching page 27, the reporter detailed to copy it found the following passage:

"But I must close. ("No." "No." "Go on, sir, when I will bear with me a few more lines, I will proceed to invite your attention to, etc."

Supervisor Schau, Treasurer of the South Town Board, who has been the subject of a unfriendly newspaper comment, informed a TRIBUNE representative yesterday that he had been to the Hospital, which fell to the lot of Mrs. E. L. Stickney, and the picture which Ford painted for the bazaar, which was won by E. B. Bannerman. Monday the Statehouse was open to the public, and the ladies' room contained two or three pages. On reaching page 27, the reporter detailed to copy it found the following passage:

"But I must close. ("No." "No." "Go on, sir, when I will bear with me a few more lines, I will proceed to invite your attention to, etc."

Supervisor Schau, Treasurer of the South Town Board, who has been the subject of a unfriendly newspaper comment, informed a TRIBUNE representative yesterday that he had been to the Hospital, which fell to the lot of Mrs. E. L. Stickney, and the picture which Ford painted for the bazaar, which was won by E. B. Bannerman. Monday the Statehouse was open to the public, and the ladies' room contained two or three pages. On reaching page 27, the reporter detailed to copy it found the following passage:

"But I must close. ("No." "No." "Go on, sir, when I will bear with me a few more lines, I will proceed to invite your attention to, etc."

Supervisor Schau, Treasurer of the South Town Board, who has been the subject of a unfriendly newspaper comment, informed a TRIBUNE representative yesterday that he had been to the Hospital, which fell to the lot of Mrs. E. L. Stickney, and the picture which Ford painted for the bazaar, which was won by E. B. Bannerman. Monday the Statehouse was open to the public, and the ladies' room contained two or three pages. On reaching page 27, the reporter detailed to copy it found the following passage:

"But I must close. ("No." "No." "Go on, sir, when I will bear with me a few more lines, I will proceed to invite your attention to, etc."

Supervisor Schau, Treasurer of the South Town Board, who has been the subject of a unfriendly newspaper comment, informed a TRIBUNE representative yesterday that he had been to the Hospital, which fell to the lot of Mrs. E. L. Stickney, and the picture which Ford painted for the bazaar, which was won by E. B. Bannerman. Monday the Statehouse was open to the public, and the ladies' room contained two or three pages. On reaching page 27, the reporter detailed to copy it found the following passage:

"But I must close. ("No." "No." "Go on, sir, when I will bear with me a few more lines, I will proceed to invite your attention to, etc."

Supervisor Schau, Treasurer of the South Town Board, who has been the subject of a unfriendly newspaper comment, informed a TRIBUNE representative yesterday that he had been to the Hospital, which fell to the lot of Mrs. E. L. Stickney, and the picture which Ford painted for the bazaar, which was won by E. B. Bannerman. Monday the Statehouse was open to the public, and the ladies' room contained two or three pages. On reaching page 27, the reporter detailed to copy it found the following passage:

"But I must close. ("No." "No." "Go on, sir, when I will bear with me a few more lines, I will proceed to invite your attention to, etc."

Supervisor Schau, Treasurer of the South Town Board, who has been the subject of a unfriendly newspaper comment, informed a TRIBUNE representative yesterday that he had been to the Hospital, which fell to the lot of Mrs. E. L. Stickney, and the picture which Ford painted for the bazaar, which was won by E. B. Bannerman. Monday the Statehouse was open to the public, and the ladies' room contained two or three pages. On reaching page 27, the reporter detailed to copy it found the following passage:

"But I must close. ("No." "No." "Go on, sir, when I will bear with me a few more lines, I will proceed to invite your attention to, etc."

Supervisor Schau, Treasurer of the South Town Board, who has been the subject of a unfriendly newspaper comment, informed a TRIBUNE representative yesterday that he had been to the Hospital, which fell to the lot of Mrs. E. L. Stickney, and the picture which Ford painted for the bazaar, which was won by E. B. Bannerman. Monday the Statehouse was open to the public, and the ladies' room contained two or three pages. On reaching page 27, the reporter detailed to copy it found the following passage:

"But I must close. ("No." "No." "Go on, sir, when I will bear with me a few more lines, I will proceed to invite your attention to, etc."

Supervisor Schau, Treasurer of the South Town Board, who has been the subject of a unfriendly newspaper comment, informed a TRIBUNE representative yesterday that he had been to the Hospital, which fell to the lot of Mrs. E. L. Stickney, and the picture which Ford painted for the bazaar, which was won by E. B. Bannerman. Monday the Statehouse was open to the public, and the ladies' room contained two or three pages. On reaching page 27, the reporter detailed to copy it found the following passage:

"But I must close. ("No." "No." "Go on, sir, when I will bear with me a few more lines, I will proceed to invite your attention to, etc."

Supervisor Schau, Treasurer of the South Town Board, who has been the subject of a unfriendly newspaper comment, informed a TRIBUNE representative yesterday that he had been to the Hospital, which fell to the lot of Mrs. E. L. Stickney, and the picture which Ford painted for the bazaar, which was won by E. B. Bannerman. Monday the Statehouse was open to the public, and the ladies' room contained two or three pages. On reaching page 27, the reporter detailed to copy it found the following passage:

"But I must close. ("No." "No." "Go on, sir, when I will bear with me a few more lines, I will proceed to invite your attention to, etc."

Supervisor Schau, Treasurer of the South Town Board, who has been the subject of a unfriendly newspaper comment, informed a TRIBUNE representative yesterday that he had been to the Hospital, which fell to the lot of Mrs. E. L. Stickney, and the picture which Ford painted for the bazaar, which was won by E. B. Bannerman. Monday the Statehouse was open to the public, and the ladies' room contained two or three pages. On reaching page 27, the reporter detailed to copy it found the following passage:

"But I must close. ("No." "No." "Go on, sir, when I will bear with me a few more lines, I will proceed to invite your attention to, etc."

Supervisor Schau, Treasurer of the South Town Board, who has been the subject of a unfriendly newspaper comment, informed a TRIBUNE representative yesterday that he had been to the Hospital, which fell to the lot of Mrs. E. L. Stickney, and the picture which Ford painted for the bazaar, which was won by E. B. Bannerman. Monday the Statehouse was open to the public, and the ladies' room contained two or three pages. On reaching page 27, the reporter detailed to copy it found the following passage:

"But I must close. ("No